Prof. Sepp's introduction pertains to Dürer's own original work (published 1498, and 1511) and makes no allusion to Hieronymus Greff's inferior counterfeit edition of 1502 which is here reproduced. Greff's monogram JVF (Jheronimus von Franckfurt) substituted by him on the plates for Dürer's mark, and which distinguishes his reprint from the genuine Dürer editions, is omitted on the facsimile plates here. William Caxton, by E. Gordon Duff ... Chicago, The Caxton club, 1909.

"The Publication committee of the Caxton club certifies that this is one of an edition of two hundred and fifty two copies printed on American hand made paper, of which two hundred and forty are for sale, and three copies printed on Japanese vellum. The printing was done from type which has been distributed. This is also one of one hundred and forty-eight copies into which has been incorporated a leaf from an imperfect copy of the first edition of Chaucer's 'Canterbury tales', printed by William Caxton, and formerly in Lord Ashburnham's library, having been purchased for this purpose by the Caxton club."

"This volume contains both new and old matter. The new includes (1) a manual for the use of diabetic patients, and (2) a detailed account of the X-ray technique employed at Duff house for examination of the alimentary canal. These small treatises and two other new articles occupy 160 out of the 300 pages. The old matter consists of a selection of the papers issued from Duff house from its opening in September 1913 to the present time. I wish to express my acknowledgments to the Quarterly journal of medicine, the Lancet, the British medical journal, the proceedings of the Royal society of medicine, and the British journal of surgery, in regard to the matter which has appeared in their pages."—Pref.

[Dulany, Daniel] 1721-1797.

Considerations on the propriety of imposing taxes in the British colonies, for the purpose of raising a revenue, by act of Parliament ... [Boston?] North America [1765?]

1 p. l., ii, [5]-47 p. 20cm.

The place and date of publication are disputed. The opinion of M. C. Tyler (Literary history of the American revolution, v. 1, p. 101) that this is the first edition, published at Annapolis in Oct. 1765, is refuted by L. C. Wroth (A history of printing in colonial Maryland, entry no. 257) who says place and printer are unknown. J. E. Alden (The Boston edition of Daniel Dulany's "Considerations ...", New England quarterly, v. 13, no. 4, 1940) presents evidence to support his belief that it was published in Boston by John Mein in Jan. 1766.
